

RRT TO B.S.R.C. TECHNOLOGY ENHANCED PROGRAM

The Marshall University/St. Mary's School of Respiratory Care offers an RRT to B.S.R.C. program for registered respiratory therapists who have diplomas or associate degrees in respiratory care and wish to earn a baccalaureate degree. This program may be completed in two semesters of full-time study or extended for part-time study. All courses will be taught through technology-enhanced methods.