

POP CULTURE STUDIES, MINOR

Overview

This minor will acquaint students with trends in American popular culture. The courses were selected to teach students the techniques of research, social meanings and consequences of popular culture. With roots in political science and other expert faculty, a pop culture studies minor enhances the student experience at Marshall. The minor is open to all students. It is designed to enrich, complement and/or supplement the formal education of a student's major.

Pop Culture Studies

 - General Education Course

Code	Title	Credit Hours
PSC 201 	Politics, Media, and Culture	3
PSY 425	Psychology of Cinema Symbolism	3
ENG 232 	Good Films	3
Select from two of the following courses:		6
CJ 418	Crime and Pop Culture
ENG 205 	Popular Literature (CT)
ENG 211 	Science Fiction
ENG 214 	Intro to Comics
ENG 344	Introduction to Film Studies
ENG 440	Selected Topics in Film
ENG 442	Gender and Sexuality in Film
HST 447	Film and Empire
JPN 250 	Japanese Anime & Manga (CT)
PSC 402
PSC 403 	War and Pop Culture
PSC 435	Harry Potter and Pol. Theory
PSC 478	Politics and Video Games
PSY 250	Psychology of Pop Culture
Total Credit Hours		15